

DEWEY AT HOME

He Arrives at Shelburne Farms, Vt., the Guest of Dr. Webb.

The Admiral Seemed Happy as He Again Looked Upon the Mountains of Vermont—He Will Be the Guest of the State Thursday.

SHELburne, Vt., Oct. 11.—Adm. Dewey is home at last and is happy to be within the shadow of the green mountains and beside the waters of Lake Champlain, away from the noise and bustle that have filled his ears since his flagship Olympia came in sight of Sandy Hook. The fact that the admiral is really in Vermont was signaled Tuesday night on tall mountain peaks by bonfires and electric searchlights from one end of the state to the other.

Adm. Dewey is the guest of Dr. W. Seward Webb at his magnificent country residence, Shelburne Farms, and will not become the state's guest until Thursday at the capital, Montpelier. He came here on a special train from New York Tuesday morning occupying Dr. Webb's magnificent car the Elsmere.

While in New York state Adm. Dewey remained within the car chatting with the others of the party, but after crossing the Vermont line above Whitehall the admiral seemed to grow a little nervous, spoke of his homecoming repeatedly, and went on the rear platform, although the car was an observation one, to view the scenery. He seemed to be very happy, and to those who were around him it appeared almost as if the admiral had a touch of homesickness. As the train neared Shelburne the admiral watched the changing scenery intently. Here and there a flag was seen, but it was nature that had done the lavish painting on this great occasion, for the Vermont woods are one mass of autumn color. When the train pulled into Shelburne the villagers and folks from the surrounding towns, from even as far away as Burlington, had made up a crowd of nearly 3,000. The engine stopped just at the station, so that the rear car, the Elsmere, was abreast of a little grass plot down the track. When the train stopped Adm. Dewey stood upon the rear platform. Preceded by Dr. Webb, he walked across the lawn, where a landau drawn by two big black horses was in waiting. As the admiral walked across the lawn a band from Burlington played "Under the Eagle," a selection made at the special request of the admiral.

As Adm. Dewey stepped into the carriage, a salute of 17 guns was fired from behind a mask of shrubbery near by. Adm. Dewey remained erect in the carriage with hat and gloves in hand bowing and smiling to the people around him. He was dressed in a gray cutaway suit and wore a silk hat. Dr. Webb handed in the admiral's son, who took a seat. The crowd of eager people closed in around the carriage until the admiral looked into a sea of faces. Just at the steps of the carriage stood a man in working clothes, Michael McKenzie, of this town, noticeable because of his height. Suddenly McKenzie threw his cap into the air and yelled: "Let's give three cheers for Adm. Dewey, the hero of Manila." The cheers were given.

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag, and headed by their teacher. At a signal, the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea." The movement of the carriage was so timed that it reached the end of the line just as the chorus was reached and the admiral, who had stood up in passing, bowed his acknowledgments. The horses were then whipped up and the admiral was driven to Shelburne house at Shelburne Farms, three miles away.

A STREET DUEL.

Dr. H. J. Cameron and Dr. P. D. Mahoney Probably Fatally Wounded at Alexander City, Ala.—Ten Shots Fired.

ALEXANDER CITY, Ala., Oct. 11.—A street duel took place Tuesday evening between Dr. H. J. Cameron, of the Romanoff Land and Mining Co., and Dr. P. D. Mahoney, oculist. Both men were desperately angry for some cause not yet known to the public, and opened up a deadly fusillade with pistols, with little or no warning. Ten shots were fired, two striking Dr. Mahoney, one taking effect in the vital part of the stomach and the other in the thigh. Dr. Cameron was shot twice, one ball taking effect in the jaw and the other in his back. Both men are probably fatally wounded.

Five Years for Embezzlement.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 11.—Harry Hough, the former assistant cashier of the Cocheo national bank, of Dover, was indicted by the grand jury of the United States district court here Tuesday on the charge of embezzling $5,500 of the bank's funds. Hough was arraigned later and pleaded nolo contendere and was sentenced to five years in jail.

The Record Broken.

BROCKTON, Mass., Oct. 11.—Eddie McDuffie broke every existing record from one to five miles inclusive at the board track here Tuesday afternoon. He rode the first two miles in less than three minutes.

HOME FOR ADM. SCHLEY.

The Woman's National Industrial League Takes the Initial Steps to Raise a Fund for That Purpose.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The Woman's National Industrial League Wednesday night took the initial steps to raise a fund with which to purchase a home in Washington for Adm. Schley. An executive committee, with Mrs. Charlotte Smith as chairman, was appointed to push the movement and the Citizens' national bank of Washington was designated as the institution to which subscribers should send their subscriptions. Resolutions were adopted as follows:

Whereas, Rr. Adm. Winfield Scott Schley, U. S. N., has, by his patriotic devotion to duty, as displayed at the battle of Santiago, endeared himself to the American people.

Whereas, The members of the Woman's National Industrial league, desiring to express their gratitude to a brave, unselfish and modest officer, who has been an earnest and chivalrous friend to industrial women. Be it, therefore, Resolved, That the Women's Industrial league take the initial and necessary steps to promote public opinion, so as to enable them to secure funds to purchase a home for Adm. Schley, at the national capital, as a token of their high appreciation of his services in behalf of our country.

Be it further resolved, that the Woman's National Industrial League of America, appropriate $100 toward the expense for stationary, postage and printing, in sending out letters to the patriotic citizens of the United States, to request their co-operation in forming committees and assisting in securing funds to purchase a home, to be presented to Adm. Schley by the people of America. We also earnestly appeal to the press of the nation to assist us in our efforts.

OFFICERS' FAMILIES.

Gen. Otis Disapproves of Their Coming to Manila Until More Peaceful Conditions.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—A cablegram from Gen. Otis to the war department received late Wednesday afternoon confirms the press dispatches regarding Col. Schwan's movement on San Francisco de Malabon. Gen. Otis says:

"Schwan was successful Tuesday in driving insurgents south with loss from San Francisco de Malabon. He reports their force disintegrated and retiring on divergent roads, which are impassable for artillery or wagons. No intention of occupying this country permanently or temporarily; transportation will return by way of Rosario and column will move in direction of Dasmariñas, probably retiring on Imus. Country of no strategic importance."

Gen. Otis disapproves of officers' families joining them at Manila. Regarding this question he Wednesday cabled the department as follows:

"Population Manila much congested. Provisions for officers' families cannot be made. Those already arrived together with families enlisted men have caused much perplexity. Would not permit my own family to come under existing circumstances; all officers and men here absent from Manila on duty; families should await more peaceful conditions."

Another message announced the arrival at Manila of the transport Victoria with 403 horses; 10 died en route and several found to be afflicted with glanders were shot. The Garonne sailed from Manila on the 7th inst. and the Athenian on the 9th, both for Seattle.

FIRING NEAR ANGELES.

The 13th Infantry Lost Two Battalion Commanders—Several Americans Were Wounded.

MANILA, Oct. 12.—During the early morning hours Wednesday there was some firing near Angeles, with the result that eight Americans were slightly wounded. Artillery was used and the enemy responded. Gen. MacArthur does not attach special significance to the incident.

A small party of Americans was fired upon by the Filipinos near Araguayan, two of our men being wounded. The 13th infantry lost two officers, Capt. Marion B. Saffold and Capt. Woodbridge Geary, both battalion commanders.

Ex-Senator Ingalls' Condition.

ARCHISON, Kan., Oct. 12.—Mrs. Ingalls Wednesday denied the report that her husband, ex-Senator John J. Ingalls, is suffering from cancer of the throat. Senator Ingalls has had tubercular laryngitis, a sequel to three attacks of the grip, but before he started for New Mexico recently the swelling had entirely disappeared and a complete recovery was expected.

The Plague at Key West.

KEY WEST, Fla., Oct. 12.—Eighteen new cases of yellow fever were reported during the past 24 hours. Dr. McAdam, of the Marine hospital service, is critically ill and his attending physicians have little hope of his recovery.

Joe Gans Got the Decision.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.—Joe Gans got the decision over Martin Judge, of Philadelphia, in a hot 20-round bout at the Eureka athletic club Wednesday night.

BOERS ADVANCE.

Soon the Roar of Guns Will Be Heard in the Transvaal.

Residents of Foreign Countries Are Joining the Boer Forces and Will Fight for the Republic—English Residents Swear Allegiance.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegram from Ladysmith dated Wednesday, alone among the specials received, declares that war has begun by the Boers in Natal. The correspondent says: "Free State burghers have seized a train at Harrismith, which was the property of the Natal government. Tuesday night a mounted patrol was stoned by Boers. The men's orders were not to fire unless they were fired upon."

LONDON, Oct. 12.—A dispatch from Glencoe Camp, dated Wednesday noon, says the burghers are reported to be beyond the president's control and hostilities are expected at any moment.

DEBBAN, Oct. 12.—Authentic information from Ladysmith confirms the report that it is the intention of the Boers to occupy Newcastle immediately.

NEWCASTLE, Oct. 12.—No news has been received here as to the rumored advance of the Boers upon Charles town, but a movement in the Boer camp is reported.

Rt. Hon. Harry Escombe, former premier of Natal, intends to remain here.

The Free State border has been closed. Nearly all the inhabitants have left the town.

Up to midnight Wednesday no dispatches have arrived from the Cape, since the expiration of the ultimatum, so it is not yet known whether the first shot has been fired.

A telegram from Pretoria, timed 7:30 Tuesday evening says: "The situation is becoming hourly more critical. Numerous Americans, Germans, Frenchmen, Swedes, Belgians, Norwegians, Danes, Italians, Dutchmen, Swiss and Cape Afrikanders have gone to the border to fight for the Transvaal although they are not burghers, while many British residents have also taken the oath of allegiance. The hope is expressed by many that war will yet be averted."

Nothing since this has been received from Pretoria and doubtless telegraphic communication with the Transvaal is not cut.

The absence of news from the Cape since early morning is not due to an interruption of the cable, but to the immense pressure of work, the cables probably being nearly monopolized by British government dispatches, which take precedence of all others. Only two cables run to Cape Town from Europe and the one on the eastern coast is very slow, so that practically all the work is thrown on one Atlantic cable, which means that the present exasperating delay will recur repeatedly during the progress of the war, and that the newspaper dispatches will probably be very meager.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Great preparations are being made at Southampton for the departure on Saturday of Gen. Sir Redvers Buller, and a great demonstration is anticipated. The duke of Connaught, the duke of York, Lord Lansdowne, Gen. Lord Wolseley and Gen. Sir Evelyn Wood are expected to accompany him to Southampton from London.

It is announced that the fleet of transports conveying Gen. Sir Redvers Buller's army corps will be escorted by war ships, while further dispatch boats and gunboats will be sent to South African waters.

The government has already expended £5,000,000 in naval and military preparations, the orders placed with contractors this week alone amounting to £600,000. The authorities anticipating a serious reduction in the output of the South African coal mines, has ordered 5,000 tons of English steam coal to be sent to the Cape for the use of the war ships.

CONYNGHAM GREENE.

Rumored That the British Diplomatic Agent at Pretoria Has Been Assassinated—Rumor Unconfirmed.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—It is rumored that Conyngham Greene, the British diplomatic agent at Pretoria, has been assassinated there.

The report however is unconfirmed and is discredited at the colonial office. The rumor that Mr. Greene had been murdered is of doubtful origin and is considered extremely improbable as it is believed that in obedience to orders from the imperial government Mr. Greene had already left Pretoria confiding the care of British interests to United States Consul Marcum.

Telegrams Censorship.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The military authorities in South Africa have instituted a censorship over all telegrams in order to prevent information regarding British movements from reaching the Boers.

Gen. McClelland Seriously Ill.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 12.—Gen. John A. McClelland is again in a serious condition. He is nearly 90 years old and for that reason there is much apprehension of the result of his present illness.

A REUNION IN THE RAIN.

President McKinley and Party Attend the Meeting of the Blue and the Gray at Evansville, Ind.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 12.—A heavy rain fall, the first in two months, that set in early Wednesday morning and continued all day had the effect of diminishing the expected attendance at the first national re-union of the Blue and Gray, notwithstanding President McKinley and his cabinet were in the city part of the time. This was the principal day of the re-union. President McKinley and his cabinet arrived from Chicago at 9 o'clock and left for the north at noon.

The presidential party was escorted from the train through the drenching rain, which did not drown out the tremendous ovation from patriotic veteran throats, to the tri-state fair grounds, where the president was introduced by Gov. Mount and addressed 10,000 people. The president remarked before he left that this was the greatest reception in the rain that he had ever been tendered. Speeches were also made by Secretary of the Treasury Sage, Secretary of the Navy Long, Attorney General Griggs, United States Senator Fairbanks and others.

The president and his party were then escorted back to the train just at noon and left for the northwest.

No exercises were held in the afternoon, which was devoted to drills by military organizations.

At 9 o'clock in the evening a banquet was held in a hotel. S.E.P. Gillett, late lieutenant commander of the United States navy, acted as toast master.

The first speech was made by Col. W. A. Hemphill, of Atlanta Ga., on "Our defenders on land and sea."

"The United States senate" was the topic of a speech by Senator C. W. Fairbanks, of Indiana.

He was followed by Col. A. J. West, of Atlanta, Ga., who spoke on "A generation after."

Col. West said in part:

"Show me the prosperous business men of this generation and I will show you the men who saw their country's flag flutter in the gloom of the wilderness, where the angry divisions rolled in the bloody mire. Show me the men upon whose shoulders this country rests to-day, and I will point out to you the men who rallied around their country's standard at Missionary Ridge and Gettysburg. I would rather have the record of an American soldier in the civil war, discharging his duty as he saw it, than to have that of Napoleon, with his selfish, vaulting ambition."

"The Blue and the Gray" was the topic of a speech by F. B. Posey, of Evansville.

Col. Josiah Patterson, of Memphis, Tenn., discussed "The Southern Patriot."

Col. Patterson said in part:

"It is not difficult to account for the patriotism of the southern people. A common heritage in the revolutionary war; in the formation and adoption of the constitution; in the administration of the government, its progress and development; and in the great names which adorn our history, was like some great centrifugal force impelling us to a common destiny. The broad patriotism, the unbounded benevolence and the enlightened statesmanship of Abraham Lincoln were far-reaching factors in the problem."

"We are here as members of the family, not as guests, to unite with our fellow citizens throughout the republic in a vow to forever maintain and defend the honor of its flag and to preserve for ourselves and posterity the integrity of its free institutions." Gov. D. W. Jones, of Little Rock, Ark., paid a glowing tribute to "the old veteran at the passing of the nineteenth century."

Gen. John C. Black, of Chicago, took as his topic "The northern patriot."

John W. Lockett, of Henderson, Ky., recounted the victories of "The Stars and Stripes."

He said in part: "Standing at the opening door of a new century, with thankfulness and praise to God that we live in this land of constitutional freedom, we salute with heart and soul this banner of the union."

The banquet closed long after midnight with a speech from Gov. Mount, of Indiana, on "Our guests," in which he pictured the gathering of the veterans of the blue and the gray as alike guests of the state and of the country, re-united, fraternalized and standing under one flag.

Ed McDuffie's Fast Mile.

BROCKTON, Mass., Oct. 12.—Eddie McDuffie went after the two-mile record here Wednesday and cut four seconds off from the record he made Tuesday afternoon, same distance. His first mile was made in 1:23 3-5 and the second in 1:25 2-5.

Ill With Yellow Fever.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Oct. 12.—The Mobile line steamer Flandria, Capt. Hanson, has arrived here with her first officer and chief engineer ill with yellow fever which they had contracted at Havana. The chief engineer, it is thought, will die. The ship has been strictly quarantined.

Died at Pinar Del Rio.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Gen. Brooke reports the death at Pinar Del Rio of Private John English, Company M, 1st Infantry, of typhoid fever.

Where a Good Pistol Is Admired.

Hon. William Wortham, long state treasurer of Texas, was in a New York jewelry store one day when he noticed a showcase filled with splendid jeweled revolvers, with silver and gold grips and chased barrels, having precious stones set into the butts.

"Lemme see one of those guns," he said to the clerk.

"Which one, sir?"

The gold one with the big ruby in the handle.

The clerk took it from the case. It was marked $300, and it looked even worth more. The Texan took it tenderly in both hands and held it admiringly up to his light. Then drawing himself up to his full height, which was six feet and a half, he rested the revolver upon his left elbow, crooked for the purpose, and looked over the sights down the long store. Those persons who saw involuntarily dodged.

"Say," said Mr. Wortham, with quiet but intense enthusiasm, as he returned the weapon, "if I was to wear that gun down in my state the people would be falling down on their knees begging to be killed with it!"

The Philippine War.

This contest is proving much more stubborn than we had anticipated. It needs a vigorous contest to straighten matters out. We should tackle the Philippines and overcome them as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does dyspepsia, indigestion, malaria, fever and ague, and liver and kidney diseases. The battle is short and decisive, and for fifty years the Bitters have always won. If you are ill, and don't know what's wrong, try it.

The Three Tellers.

"Can you tell me," asked the summer man, "What are the three quickest modes of communication?"

"Well, no," replied the summer girl. "Hat, Telephone, Telegraph, and tell-a-woman," and now he wonders why she returned his ring in the middle of the season. —Philadelphia Call.

Non-Territorial Expansion.

Means paying rent for a poor farm. Now is the time to secure a good farm on the line of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway in Marinette County, Wisconsin, where the crops are of the best, work plenty, fine markets, excellent climate, pure soft water, land sold cheap and on long time. Why rent a farm when you can buy one for less than you pay for rent? Address C. E. Rollins, Land Agent, 161 La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.

Good for Girls Only.

Dewey anecdotes relate that the admiral traces his start in life to a severe whipping a school teacher gave him, whereupon he resolved to lead a new life. This anecdote will be read out loud by the mothers, but it will not fool any boy. It is harder to fool a boy than a girl with fairy tales. —Atchison Globe.
